Even in Thailand, when the locals come to Phuket, they hunt for Khanom Jeen. Khanom Jeen are fresh, thin rice noodles which are made from rice sometimes fermented for three days, boiled, and then made into noodles. The way to eat Kanom jeen is to top it with a variety of curries (you could mix everything or only the one curry you like) and eat together with any number of fresh, blanched, and pickled vegetables.

We have a secret for you, Khun Jeed’s restaurant in Manik. 81 Srisoonthorn Rd, Tambon Si Sunthon, Thalang District, Phuket 83110

“I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.”
